

Adult Lenten Series 2008

Led by Jane Percy and the Rector.

Mondays, 5:30 P.M. in Calvary House - Brown Bag Dinner Conclude at 7:30
Feb 11, 18, 25, March 3, 10, and concluding on the 17th with Stations of the Cross and Healing Eucharist Service in Holy Week.

We will be reading The Forgotten Touch: More Stories of Healing (Paperback) by Nigel W. D. Mumford as he prepares to be with us at Calvary All Saint's Sunday 2008. We will discuss the power of healing in our lives as we reflect on the text. Please contact the office to sign-up and order the text. Books are available ($15.) in the Parish Office.

Jane is a former college admission director. She was director of International Programs at the Eugene O'Neill Theater Center and during that time she created theater study programs in Ireland, Poland, Germany and Italy. In 1989 she became founding director of the American program for theater students at the famous Moscow Art Theater School. In 1994, Jane created a professional theater study program in London which is now based at Shakespeare's Globe Theater.

During her time in London, Jane began to explore complimentary medicine and especially, hypnosis. She studied with Dr. Brian Weiss, author of MANY LIVES, MANY MASTERS and past life regression therapy is central to her healing work. Jane is a coach, a medical intuitive, a certified hypnotherapist (her specialty is medical hypnosis), a teacher and a writer.

Jane teaches classes in energy medicine and hypnosis for weight loss, pain and stress reduction. Her weight loss program, LIGHTEN UP! WIN AT LOSING is offered at Backus Hospital and at Riverlight Wellness Center.

Jane is a daughter, sister, mother, grandmother, and a member of Calvary Parish. She brings great teaching and intuitive insight to us for this Lenten Class.